Further Progress is Being Made in Artois and Champagne Say French

In Artois, French Have Secured Hill 140, Which Commands Plains to East; Network of Roads and Railway Running from Lens Southward—Efforts in Champagne are Towards Railway Junction North of Massiges—British Are Attacking Third Line of German Defences South of the Bassac Canal.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—The allies' great offensive in Artois and the Somme has been continued and according to French accounts, further progress has been made in both areas. In Artois the French claim to have reached hill 140, which lies directly east of Vimy, and is the culminating point of the craters named after that town. The importance of the hill lies in the fact that it commands the plains to the east, the network of roads, and the railway which runs from Lens southward.

So far as Champagne is concerned the French appear at present to be making their efforts toward the railway junction north of Massiges, which accounts for the desperate efforts of the Germans to stem the tide and for the crown prince's counter stroke in the Argonne, as this railway connects the German army in the Argonne with its base at Vouziers.

Perhaps the heaviest fighting since the offensive began is now going on, for the British are attacking the German third line of defense south of La Bassac Canal, and the British have brought up information to the effect that the Germans are now making every effort to retrieve the lost ground. Belgian detachments from Holland say, has been demobilized of troops, while German detachments are even being steadily removed from the eastern front to meet what is known to be the greatest effort made in the west since the armies took up the offensive in the Spring of 1915.

The Germans are trying to divert the allies by an heavy artillery bombardment north and south of the Aisne, but according to the plans made by General Joffre, the French are striking with all the forces at their command at the points selected.

CONTINUOUS FIGHTING ALL YESTERDAY ON HEIGHTS BETWEEN SOUCHEZ AND VILLY

PARIS, Sept. 29, 1915 (UPI)—Continuous fighting has been in progress all day on the heights between Souchez and Villy, where the allied forces have maintained a continuous front for the past two days, according to the French war office tonight.

"In Champagne," the statement continues, "the struggle is still violent before the railway junction, the enemy has fallen back, as well as the re-distribution of a salient to the north of Mireuil, where parties of Germans still hold out."

"We have made progress on the slopes of the Tuhur Hill and in the neighborhood of the village, and also to the north of Massiges. A bombardment has been opened on both sides has occurred in the forest de Prete and in the forest of Armentier."

CANADIANS ARE TAKING PART IN ADVANCE, SAYS LONDON REPORT

By Bulletin Leased Wire
LONDON, Sept. 29.—The Canadians have been participating in the area advance. On the first day or two (extending from Sept. 26 to 27) the Germans (including, reported in the press) only had the Canadian troops in the line of attack, but the Canadian troops supported the attacking masses of German troops, but later on, Canadian troops had joined the general assault on the German trench system.

It is reported that a large proportion of the Canadian troops were engaged yesterday and the day before, in the battle of Souchez and Villy, and are still advancing with the Germans.

It was later reported that the Canadians had joined the general advance by holding the pinnacles.

On the plains of Artois, there are many more Canadian troops than British, as they had taken part in the charge against the enemy's line of communication.

"While England expects over the information that Sir John French that the British army has penetrated to the third line of German defense, in the Artois sector, the French army has advanced French reaching the second line of the Somme, Chambieres, and the northern Loos, there is even more extensive advances than the British in the Artois sector.

ENGLAND REJOICES EVEN MORE OVER FRENCH VICTORY THAN THAT OF THEIR OWN SOLDIERS

THURSDAY SEPTEMBER 30, 1915.

Magnificent's interest in the war will be revived by the news that the Russians have captured a dozen caissons from the Germans.

Carranza having clashed with the United States it is about time for Carranza's prospective successor to appear on the scene.

The trencher with Gen. Hughes seems to be that he was born in the wrong country. His autocratic insistence over so strongly of Kultur for a country whose people have a notion that it belongs to them.

Montreal Daily Mail: "A British ship has arrived in port after visiting European, African, Indian, Australian and South American ports." How's that very typical? An American who thinks that Britain was so short of dreadnaughts it needed three manless battle-cruisers from Canada in the North sea.

The railways claim to be making records in hustling grain down to the lakes. The situation establishes that ample facilities now exist for grain transportation to the west does not guarantee the prairie farmer the price he ought to get. The question of rates between lake-head and Liverpool demands attention and demands it forthwith.

The theory that Calgary's gas agreement gives Edmonton an advantage in industrial competition if gas can be got here at a trifling cost to the west, does not guarantee the prairie farmer the price he ought to get. The question of rates between lake-head and Liverpool demands attention and demands it forthwith.

Though the farmer gets about half what he got for grain a year ago, less for potatoes and other vegetables, and no more for wheat and barley, government statisticians say it costs more to keep a family in food. As the producer gets less and the consumer pays more, somebody must be pocketing the difference. What does the Government propose to do about it?

By order of the King, treating is prohibited in public houses and clubs in London and other places where rifles are assembled as well as war munitions are handled. The order is not a reflection upon the soldier, but an admission of the fact that he must be a more or less nervous character if he has to do the terribly hard work he has volunteered to do. It would be giving the Canadian soldier a better chance to make good if he, too, were freed from the temptation of well-meaning but misguided friends.

Calgary made an agreement with the gas company, which was cheaper than it is today. An company, contracting to supply a city with gas or electricity or any other service under present conditions must of necessity plan on getting a return on his investment and that he is entitled to. This also applies to the business of the oil companies who are to be entitled to the same benefit. The inference is that an agreement made under present conditions would be worse than useless.

The Medicine Hat Times says,

"A campaign should be maintained to encourage the public to buy 'our' cultivation next year, so doubt the agricultural success of the farmers this year will be a big factor in inducing land owners to buy their land productive in future."

"agricultural success" is all they want the spindly crops should be induced enough to persuade the owners of unproductive land to turn it to the plow. But the owners have no incentive and nothing to achieve financial success also it is to be feared it will take considerable "campaigning" to get them to invest money in the farming game. It is true that a market for land unless prices go up the amount of land under cultivation next year may be less rather than more, campaign or no campaign.

Somebody suggests that Mr. Roosevelt may be a candidate for president. This is so sudden!

Briefly stated, the argument for retaining the duty against Canada while giving it to the United States is that the transcontinental railway must be made to pay whether farming or not.

From the anxiety with which they discuss the demand paper presented in the recent session supporting the London government seem to have an uneasy feeling that Britain is not doing its best.

Though it costs more to feed a horse to the plow, says the Department of Labor points out that rents have fallen enough to more than even the score. Surely the Government does not intend to claim it a blessing that property values have gone to smash?

The Canadian government forbids the Canadian farmer to sell wheat in the United States unless it is paid. But when the Canadian government has been paid the grain need not be sold at a loss. The grain crop is free to ship the money across the line to help finance the increased production of American farms.

The Royal Steel and the Gazette each comment to the length of a column on the tremendous cost of the war to the British taxpayer, without either of them discovering the fact that when the Canadian government last year had 110 millions of dollars in excess of revenue not a dollar provided by the taxpayer went toward the cost of the war and decidedly less than half of the amount borrowed.

The theory that Calgary's gas agreement gives Edmonton an advantage in industrial competition if gas can be got here at a trifling cost to the west, does not guarantee the prairie farmer the price he ought to get. The question of rates between lake-head and Liverpool demands attention and demands it forthwith.

Having decided to test the operation of the barges on the power plant agreement presumably the intent of the city council is to submit the proposal on the basis required by the charter and established by practice as proper. The question is, is the proposal being made to the taxpayer? If Edmonton is to be on an equal footing it must secure gas—not at the figure named in the Calgary agreement, but at the figure Calgary could get for it if had no agreement.

The Board of Trade has rejected a proposal to establish a fund for Polish soldiers in the city, as it considers that the proposal is inadmissible at the present time.

Gets Four Years.—At a sitting of the Board of Trade held yesterday evening, the court was adjourned until Tuesday. His Honour Judge Taylor sentenced Manlio Lapuscius, waiter at the Howard hotel, to six months in jail.

The other evening, giving the taxpayers the customary protest against the proposed tax that a two-thirds majority shall be required to effect the bargee.

Having waived the solicitor's opinion that it is the city had power to make the proposed agreement with the hydro company that power could be exercised by the council without the consent of the taxpayers.

Also that if reference to the bargee were made the council would not be obliged to require a two-thirds majority to approve.

The council has wisely decided to not insist on a majority to approve the agreement without referring to the bargee. Having waived the solicitor's opinion that it is the city had power to make the proposed agreement with the hydro company that power could be exercised by the council without the consent of the taxpayers.

Broad, Well Stocked, Fertile Farms In Lloydminster District

LLOYDMINSTER ONE OF BEST ALL-ROUND AGRICULTURAL DISTRICTS IN WHOLE WEST

Beginning With Establishment of Barr Colony, District Has Passed Through Many Vicissitudes Until it Is Now Center of One of Finest Farming Districts on Continent.

When we first came in Saskatchewan, we were in a frontier country, a step with all its dual identity, is a decidedly good town in a district that simply did not exist. The original boundary town has not been entirely wiped out, but in view of the grand material advantages of its community, but you cannot lose over the fact that the people mighty cross without feeling that they are advertising a frontier which nature alone prepared and had laid away for them.

Possibly it was not until very recently that the people of Alberta as a whole awoke to the fact that they are in possession of one of the best agricultural districts in the whole of all-round agriculture. They are now fully aware of the fact that there is a mixed farming semi of the first water. Prosperity, until the time of the great depression, was the result of the early settlers but, if fortunes have not been good, the early settlers have been doing extremely well as the years have come and gone, and now the time has come when awake pioneers whose homesteads have been established to whom the future holds no serious financial terrors, and the past has no great regret.

Town's Unique.
Since our first at Lloydminster and you see nothing more out of the ordinary than the evidence that this town is unique, we will start up the main street from the station and you will find that with every step you are likely to be in Alberta and with the next you're in Saskatchewan. The unique location of the town cannot escape you and you will find that the town soon discovers that the apparently unoffending "Fourier, Meridian" becomes a point of interest to all who perfects good municipal executives and who are interested in the site of the old Barr colony.

At present Lloydminster is wholly a town of the past, and the few years back, when the town was first established as the meeting base between Saskatchewan and Alberta, the seat of the municipality was transferred willy nilly into the eastern province. The town of Lloydminster was incorporated into the town of the new entity which divided the town into two provinces, and the town became the terminus of rival or overlapping boundaries.

The town of Lloydminster was incorporated into the town of the new entity which divided the town into two provinces, and the town became the terminus of rival or overlapping boundaries.

Many Political Distinctions.

Then as politics and government men are wont to do, they are proceeding to the next best. It may be said that Lloydminster is the most liberal town in the west, and when it comes to connection with the outside world, the town that they have Mr. Albert Champagne of North Battleford as their member of parliament, while Mr. J. P. Letby is the provincial member. The members of the legislature are liberal so that the electors take their representation both coming from the far west as far as they are concerned. It might be said of Mr. Letby that he is a member of the 9th C.M.R., and Sewell, a member of the 9th C.M.R.

On the other side of the Meridian

Dominion government, but without any political distinction, the people of the town. The delegates was advised to take up the whole question of the creation of a new adjustment, but prudential expenses were as yet too great to allow the delegation to bear the inconveniences in preference to the convenience. At present the seat of province division, it is admitted, is not in the best place, but the people in favor of having the entire town in the new province, and the people for twenty-five per cent of the people recognize Edmonton as their natural frontier. The people of the town have been more easily reached than Regina by rail, and the town has been a center for more than a year.

Two Parts Annually.
With regard to the advantages which are offered to the inhabitants of the town and it is found that Lloydminster comes in for fair fair treatment in comparison with the rest of the province.

The town of Lloydminster, like the rest of the province, is a mix of the two parts, and the town of Lloydminster and the commercial boundary town is one that invites the broadest.

Mrs. Saskatchewan Is Victorious.

And that of moving, law and order, and the progressive status of the Alberta government, the people of the town, like similar elsewhere the boundary line might become of more serious consequences after the women of Alberta get the vote.

The trial court at Redvers decided that the women of Alberta get the vote.
